DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 8/31/07 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 5, 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rzeszewski et al. (4,041,535).

Regarding claim 5, Rzesewski discloses a PLL circuit for television tuning showing a reference frequency signal generator (41, 40), a shifting means (36), a local oscillation signal (VHF OSC, UHF OSC), and a control means (25). Rzeszewski is intended to detect interference noise (col. 4, lines 52-64). The tuning system is capable to tune TV channels in the frequency of 91.25 MHz and to generate the IF frequency at 45.74 MHz. It is intended to tune all conventional television signals.

Regarding claims 7-10, see rejection above.

Regarding claim 11, the programmable frequency divider 40 stores the oscillation signal from oscillator 41, which meets the memory circuit as claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 3, 4 and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to M. Lee whose telephone number 571-272-7349. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday from 9 to 6.
